

Bringing mayors together in conversation to build civic trust.

The nationally recognized Regional Council of Mayors (RCM) was formed in 2004 as a nonpartisan platform focused on building civic trust through relationships, inquiry, partnerships and action.

In 2017, the RCM launched Minnesota Mayors Together out of a concern that the political gridlock resulting from the urban/rural divide is detrimental to our state.

Minnesota Mayors Together provides a way forward. The initiative seeks to build trusted relationships by fostering conversations and collaboration across the state. The goal is to shift a negative culture, not to build a structure.
